NEWS & VIEWS

PRESENTATION

A presentation of the Swimming World magazine award was made to ex-Olympic swimmer, Michael Wenden, at a reception held at the Club recently. This award is in recognition of achievement in a particular phase of swimming and is donated by the Swimming World magazine of California.

The merits of the world's leading swimmers are judged by many swimming experts throughout the world. The swimmers are listed in their style and distance, and each category has its own award.

Australia achieved the distinction of two winners in 1968 — Lyn McClements and Michael Wenden. Michael was present to receive his award, and responded accordingly. The presentation was made on behalf of the Swimming World by member, W. B. Phillips, president of the Amateur Swimming Union of Australia.

Congratulations to you, Michael, we hope you continue with your success.

BRISBANE VISITORS

Our chairman, Frank Carberry, recently had the opportunity of entertaining the president of Brisbane Tattersall's Club, Jack Delaney, and secretary, Ron Clelland, who were accompanied by their wives and Jack Delaney Jnr.

Other visitors from Queensland were members Rod O'Loan and Bert Sakzewski, who were in Sydney on business. Nice to see our interstate members enjoying the facilities of the Club.

THURSDAY NIGHTS ON THE FIRST

The Committee recently introduced a new procedure for a trial period by permitting members to entertain their wives and friends at the 1st Floor Bar on Thursday nights. Opening night was most encouraging and from all accounts it was a popular innovation, so if you come along next Thursday night at 8.00 p.m. — you won't be disappointed.

A BIG-HEARTED MAN

Many members will know Sir Charles Moses, who recently made news when he took part in a Sydney to Hornsby Walkathon in aid of charity. Sir Charles' latest feat was winning the Veterans' Cup in the big walk across Singapore Island. More than 1000 took part in the 12½ mile event, with the grand prize going to a 33 years old RAF corporal, who was a former Welsh walking champion. At the age of 69, Sir Charles finished well in front of men a quarter his age, and we congratulate him on his triumph.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

The 1969 Billiards and Snooker Tournament will be under way by the end of this month and judging by the practice taking place on the Billiards tables on the 2nd Floor, onlookers should be treated to some excellent games during the next few months. There is an added incentive for the snooker handicap winner this year per medium of a trophy kindly donated by Mr. Tom Powell. This trophy is on display on the 1st Floor.

OVERSEAS TRIP

The Chairman, Mr. Frank Carberry and the Club Secretary were entertained at a function to farewell one of the Club's auditors, Mr. Harry Rowell, who is now on a 3 months trip around the world. Some business will be taken care of on the trip, but in the main it is pleasure and relaxation all the way. Enjoy yourself, Harry, as this trip is more than well deserved.

TO THE FAR EAST FOR BUSINESS

Member Jack Stutsell is off to Hong Kong for a few months, as he has been engaged as a swimming coach for an educational enterprise. Half your luck, Jack, as from what we hear about the Orient you would have to enjoy your work. Club member, Athol Sheppard, is a stipendiary steward with the Royal Hong Kong Jockey Club and is always pleased to welcome any visitors.

ANZAC DAY

Anzac Day saw over 300 members and friends gather in the Club when they were entertained following the march. As you could expect there were tall tales and true as they reminisced about their war experiences. As Australians we should be very proud of Anzac Day and what it signifies, and should never forget those brave and gallant men who fought for this country.

TRIBUTE

We are sorry to advise the death of well known member and prominent business and racing figure, William Keighery, who died at the age of 67 last week. Bill was renowned for his aid to charity with special emphasis on medicine, and established a medical fellowship to enable specialist neurosurgeons to undertake research in the United States.

Bill was a committeeman of the Sydney Turf Club until a month ago, and was well known in racing circles. He had been ill for some time.

To his family and many friends we join to extend our deepest sympathy at the passing of this popular gentleman.

Accommodation

When you stay in town, stay at your Club. Make your bedroom reservations by telephone, telegram or letter . . .

P.S.—Always let us know the duration of your stay, if possible, because you may be keeping another member from booking.

RECUPERATING

Nice to see senior members Bill Longworth and Committeeman Claude Moore, back in the Club after a considerable time. Bill is recovering from a serious operation, and Claude is nursing a broken ankle. All who saw them reported them both very fit and well after their enforced spell away from the Club.

We had word the other day that Harry Hoare, who has been a member for 18 years, is in hospital after suffering a coronary. His son reported that Harry is doing very well, and will be up and about shortly.

NEW EDITOR FOR T.C.M.

We have been fortunate in obtaining the services of Club member, Laurie Maher, to fill the vacancy of Editor of Tattersall's Club's monthly magazine.

Laurie has been a long time member of the Australian Journalists' Association, the Australian Jockey Club, the Sydney Turf Club, the Sydney Cricket Ground, N.S.W. Rugby League, and was formerly an executive member of the Registered Clubs' Association.

Already we have suggestions for increasing the popularity of our magazine, but it will require greater enthusiasm by members with their contributions.

Also, we intend to include a further service in our columns by publishing a members' business and professional directory, and any enquiries in this direction will be welcomed. Kindly address all correspondence to the editor, Tattersall's Club Magazine, and it will receive prompt attention.

We are also glad to receive any particulars of private functions that may be given in the Club by members. When any member has something of import to celebrate — anniversary, send-off, welcome back, family engagement, etc., please complete the form provided for this purpose and it will be taken care of.

Anything that you feel could be of interest to the magazine, please place in Letterbox Number 1, on the First Floor, with Mrs. Banner, or by mail.

OLD MAN'S PLANS FOR HIS OLD HORSE

Victoria's oldest successful race-horse owner has made plans for an equally successful nine-year-old equine to contest the next Caulfield Cup.

The owner is 90-year-old W. R. Kemball, and the horse is Future, winner of the recent Easter Cup at Caulfield with 9.4. Future won the race two years ago and was second to freak winner, Bunratty Castle, in the last Caulfield Cup. So the plans for the 1969 Caulfield Cup are not built on straw.

Mr. Kemball is Australian born, made a fortune in picture shows in New Zealand, and returned to his native Melbourne 20 years ago to settle down to the enjoyment of his favourite pastime, the sport of kings. He planned shrewdly. Much of the money which became due from the picture interests, which he still holds, is spent on New Zealand yearling purchases to race in Victoria. He picks these well, too, because his stable is rarely without good horses and in recent years he has had two bonanzas. They are Lord with 27½ wins, 13 seconds and 11 thirds from only 80 starts, worth $A118,728, and Future 16 wins, 12 seconds, 16 thirds from 89 starts and $A84,000

Mr. Kemball makes racing pay without betting, and that is why Future started at 12/1 in his Easter Cup success, despite a neck second to Rain Lover at his prior start in the weight-for-age Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Flemington.

Lord mixed it with the best sprinters of his time. He won the 1959 Futurity with 10.6, ran third the next year with 10.7 to Todman conceding him five pounds, and the following year was second to Sky High 9.7 conceding him a stone. At the time Sky High was Australia's champion racehorse.

Future won the 1964 Futurity as a three-year-old with 8.5. Since then he has been pitted against every champion performer and has more than held his own as proven by his 16 wins and 12 seconds.

To Mr. Kemball's shrewd financial organisation of his turf interests, and the prowess of the horses he has picked, add the skilled handling of his racehorses by his private trainer, Ken Hilton. He must be a wizard to stand them up to the tough racing programmes he gives them against the best rivals in the country.

The prize-money earned by these Kemball horses and lots of other moderns draws attention to what sums the great champions of the past have earned if racing stakes had carried their present values. Gloaming earned $86,000 for his 57 wins and nine seconds. One of his weight-for-age contests in the famous series of four matches in 1922 with Beauford, the Hill Stakes at Rosehill was worth $948. Compare this with Rajah Sahib's Cox Plate at Moonee Valley, this season's richest weight-for-age event at $26,500.

Gloaming's Sydney Derby was worth $8948. Randwick's last classic three-year-old event was worth $41,000.

It needs only simple arithmetic to work out that with stakes at least now four times bigger than they were in the past, Gloaming's earnings would have soared above the $300,000 mark. Tulloch with $220,247 is Australia's greatest stake winner. But even his tally would have been higher at modern prize values. For instance, the Caulfield Cup he won was worth $20,000. Last year's was worth $41,000.

SWIMMING NOTES

Contest for the Monthly Point Scores in the swimming pool continue to provide thrilling tussels with the latest resulting in a dead heat between John Ward and Bill Richards, with Bill Butchart a couple of points astern in third place. They are followed by Charles Coppa and Bruce Cameron a further point away.

All four swimmers have been in rare form lately, especially Charles Coppa and Bruce Cameron, both notching two firsts and seconds in finals. John Ward, despite losing a second off his handicap, managed to win three heats and one final.

Owing to the Easter festivities racing was resumed on Thursday, 10th, with a 40 yards brace relay. When the finalists were on the board the point score stood at Ward and Richards on 23, and Butchart 21. Bill Butchart had to win the final, but in an exciting finish was relegated into fourth place.

Star turn of the month was the dead heat in the 40 yards First Division final on the 24th between Nev Amy (27) and Max Sernack (27) both turning in a superlative performance in 25.5 secs. and losing a second off their handicaps.

Leigh Bowes, who has been swimming in fine form during the month, starred in a different role when he took out the second prize in a recent lottery. Good luck, Leigh, it couldn't have happened to a finer sportsman and good fellow.

As mentioned in last month's notes Michael O'Dea was running for the North Sydney Council and we congratulate him on his election.

It was a pleasure to see Bill Kirwan, the donor of our 'Native Son' trophy, entertaining the manager of a prominent jewellery store and watching the finals of the 40 yards handicap.

Welcome back to Cliff Shaffran and Mervyn Finlay after a lengthy absence. Cliff showed he had lost none of his brilliance by taking out a heat in the smart time of 22.2 secs.

Fastest winning times during the month were J. Devitt, 18.3 and 18.5 secs., P. Blake, 19.2 and 19.7 secs., W. Henneberry, 21 and 21.2 secs., W. Richards, 21.2, 21.5, 21.8, secs., and Bruce Cox, 21.3 secs. Bruce Cameron has been docked two seconds and Neville Amy, Max Sernack and John Connery one apiece.

Several new swimmers have faced the starter during the month, and are showing fair promise, including Peter Lubrano, Rick Arendsen, Ted Dearn, Peter Haigh, and Bob Callaghan. Both Rick Arendsen and Peter Haigh have already notched wins, and it will not be long before the others catch the eye of the judges.

With only two more monthly events to go the Native Son trophy leaders are A. O'Connor on 128 points, with Charles Coppa and Max Sernack tying in second place on 116½, and John Connery trailing 2½ points astern on 114. The contest is at an interesting stage as only 27 points separate the first eight places.

In the April-May point score two events are yet to be swum, and the leaders are:

Max Sernack 14½, S. Kay 13, F. L. Bowes 13, D. Dind 12, J. Ward 12, B. Cameron 12, N. Amy 11½, D. Jackson 11, B. Cox 11, J. Devitt 10, J. Comans 10, B. Phillips 9½, and W. Henneberry 9½.

Greetings to all the members from our genial honorary secretary, Jack Dexter, who is making good progress and hopes to be with us again before long.

GOLF NOTES

At the time of going to press, with no further meetings having taken place, and consequently no results, this is the ideal time to acquaint members of our special coming events.

Your committee, after due deliberation, has reached finality on the timing and venues of two of the Golf Club's major social fixtures for the current season. They are as under:

Mid-Season Members' and Ladies' Night: Tuesday, 5th August, 1969. This night is to be in the form of a cabaret style dinner dance to be held in the Club's dining room, following pre-dinner drinks in the Club Room on the first floor.

Bookings for the occasion will be restricted to Golf Club members and their Ladies, so please advise of your parties early. Bring along your favourite girl and let her meet those fellow golfers who reduce you to tears on the course.

Members' Golfing Weekend: Friday, 19th September, 1969. This 'convention', when you will unfortunately be compelled to leave your loved ones, has been set down for the weekend commencing 19th September. On this occasion mine host, David Jones, will tend to the sore and needy at Dormie House, Moss Vale.

More about this anon! Suffice to say that all those prospective lion-hearted participants should book early and nominate your roommate, where possible!!

DATES TO REMEMBER

Mid Season Members' & Ladies' Night at Tattersall's Club, TUESDAY, 5th AUGUST.

Golfing Weekend, at Dormie House, Moss Vale, FRIDAY 19th SEPTEMBER.

Members will be advised further per medium of notices and the magazine, as to the final details of these events.

Please Note: We are always happy to welcome new members. Anyone desirous of joining us please contact Mrs. Jan Banner in the Club's main office.

UPSETS IN 'GOOD IDEA'

TROPHY COMPETITION

This competition is off to a flying start and already there have been some unexpected results. The first round was completed very quickly and already matches have been played in the second round. Complete results up to this moment are:

First Round:

R. Callaghan	(+18)	defeated	John Devitt	(+27)	41-21
Ernie MacDonald	(+21)	"	Des Kearney	(+22)	Forfeit
Charles Robinson	(+13)	"	Bruce Cox	(+25)	41-23
Ken Glass	(+11)	"	Max Sernack	(+16)	41-34
Michael O'Dea	(+12)	"	John Brice	(+17)	41-24
Norman Rogers	(+1)	"	Bill Hannan	(+12)	42-40
Arthur O'Connor	(+18)	"	P. Christie	(+20)	41-23
Ralph Davies	(+6)	"	Bill Sellen	(+13)	41-37
Bill Yewdall	(+12)	"	Bill Orme	(+18)	41-38
Wal Tyler	(+23)	"	P. Corrigan	(+25)	Forfeit
Charles Coppa	(+32)	"	Robert Hill	(+12)	41-21
Bruce Partridge	(Scr)	"	Stan Heaton	(+16)	41-38
Robert Lipman	(Scr)	"	David Morrissey	(+12)	41-35
Rod Fisher	(+19)	"	Terry Forrest	(+31)	41-32
Ian Rolle	(+14)	"	Peter Barnes	(+25)	41-36
Frank Burns	(+15)	"	John Thirlwall	(+25)	41-31

Second Round:

Ken Glass	(+11)	"	C. Robinson	(+13)	41-38
Norman Rogers	(+1)	"	Michael O'Dea	(+12)	41-36
C. Coppa	(+32)	"	Bruce Partridge	(Scr)	41-32
Frank Burns	(+15)	"	Ian Rolle	(+14)	41-24

The greatest surprise is Charles Coppa. In the first round he defeated Robert Hill easily by 41-21, and then followed up in the second round by defeating Bruce Partridge 41-32. This is no mean feat because Robert and Bruce are A Grade men. In fact Bruce has been Club champion on a few occasions. Certainly Bruce conceded a very big start, and usually a player with his ability would have little difficulty in giving such a start. Charles however played his very best, and some of his returns were amazing. This enabled him to win vital points now and again, and so on to a very well earned victory. Well done, Charles, and we wish you luck during the remainder of the competition.

Norman Rogers was another to come to light with a surprise win. After his exciting match against Bill Hannan, whom he defeated by 42-40 (it was very close and could have gone either way) Norman met Michael O'Dea in the second round. Michael has improved so much I personally thought he would win. He played marvellous handball, but in spite of this he could not match Norman on the day, who was terrific, and had an excellent win of 41-36.

Frank Burns had two very good wins. In the first round he defeated John Thirlwall by the comfortable margin of 41-31, and in the second round he had a very nice victory over Ian Rolle of 41-24. His form is so good I have a feeling that he is the man for the other competitors to watch in this event.

Booking arrangements for bedrooms

Since our residential section has been completed it has proved to be most popular with members, both local and out-of-town, and a steady flow of members is always seeking accommodation. However, the increased facilities now available provide for greater numbers than before and, for the present at least, it is only on the rarest occasions that the Club is in a position where it cannot take a booking. For the most part accommodation is always available and members are urged to use the Club for residential purposes whenever the occasion arises.

The bedrooms leave nothing to be desired in first class accommodation. Furnishings are tasteful and relaxing, as the photograph of a typical room clearly shows. Most bedrooms have their own bathroom and toilet facilities. The rooms where this is not the case are situated adjacent to the general bathrooms for maximum convenience to the occupants.

Members who have stayed in the Club are unanimous in their opinion that our accommodation compares more than favourably with Sydney's first class hotels. The tariff, however, is quite modest for this standard of accommodation and is as follows:

Bedroom with bathroom, $8.00 per day.

Bedroom without bathroom, $6.00 per day.

This tariff includes several extras which are not normally available elsewhere.

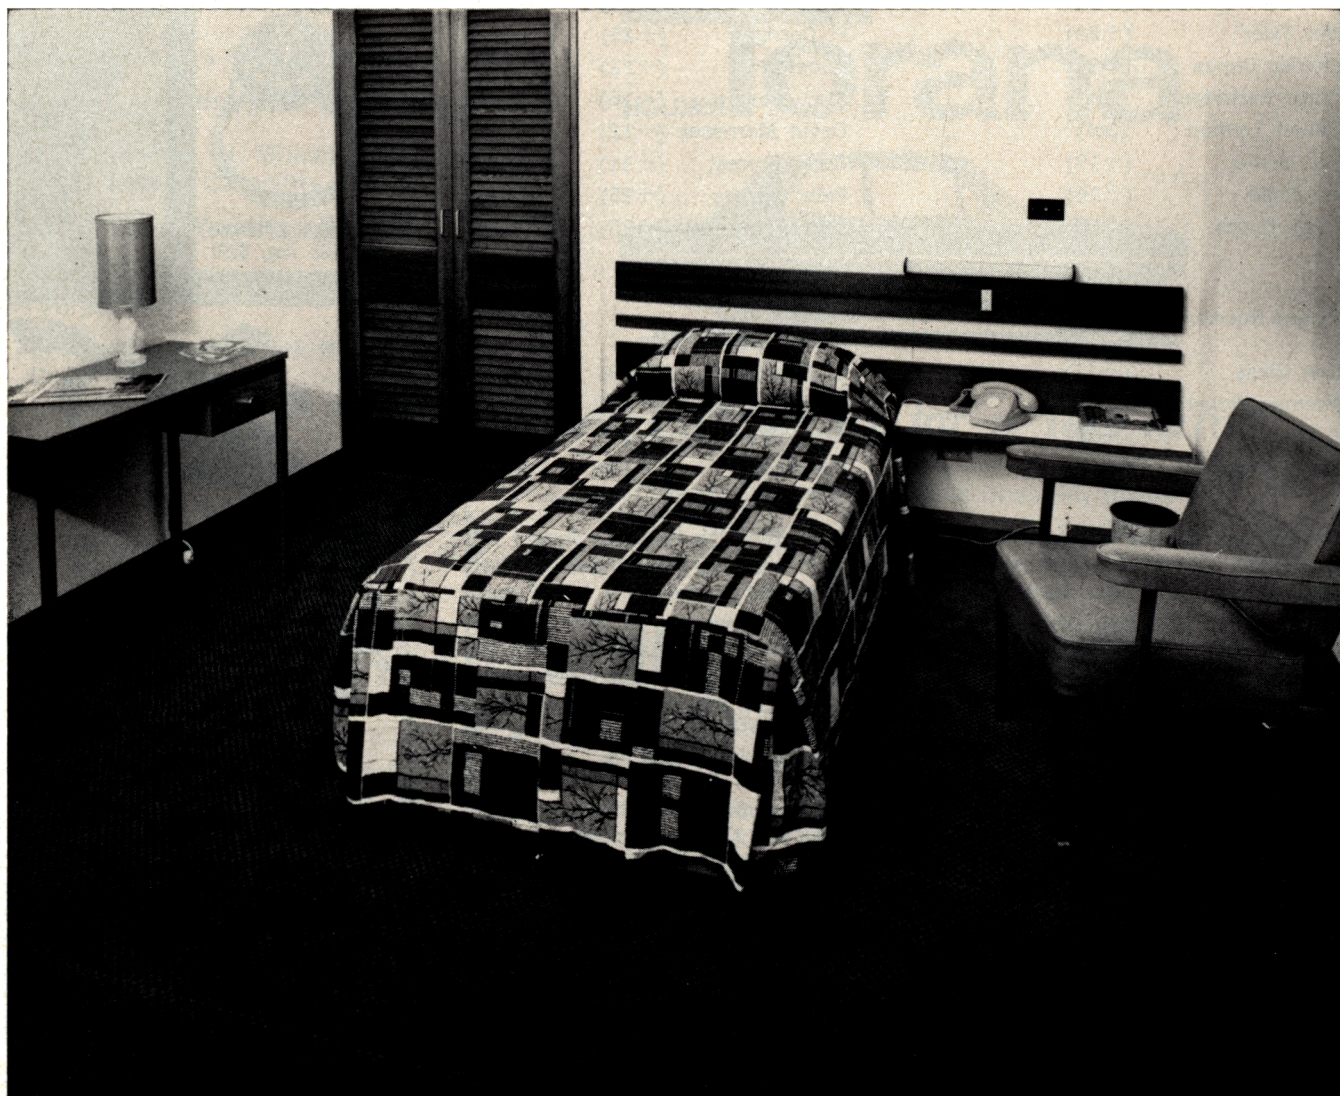

The swimming pool on the third floor is open to residents, who like an early morning swim, up to 9 a.m. and is free. Also provided at no cost are morning tea, newspapers and breakfast.

So if members need accommodation in Sydney it is hard to find better or more economical residence than the Club.
